1 Overview of Lincoln County MO Election Night Reporting

The Lincoln County Clerk's Office uses an online tool called Election Night Reporting (ENR) to display results from elections on a website. The website provides visitors with a graphical view of in-depth county results. You are presented with a breakdown of votes received for a candidate by contest and totals by vote type. Maps illustrate the precincts which are reporting, voter turnout, and results by precinct. The customization of contests to be viewed is controlled by the My Favorite Races functionality. Downloadable reports and custom filtering are available on all navigation pages. The site contains search capabilities and uses a responsive design to fit the size of your viewing screen.

Election night results are the unofficial totals of votes cast. The official election results will be available after the bipartisan election verification team has convened to certify the election results.

When and How Often Will the Results Be Updated?

Once the polling locations have closed, the election materials are manually transported to the county clerk's office. The clerk's office performs an audit of the materials prior to generating each results report. This report is then uploaded to make the results available to the public via the ENR tool. Updates occur throughout the night as they become available until all polling locations have reported.
